Subject: CalSAWS Logo Contest Winner!

Lloyd Amog, CalWORKs Workforce Services Specialist at Delta Fair in Antioch, is the winner of the CalSAWS logo contest for his "California & Mt. Diablo" design entry.

Lloyd explained his design inspiration: "I decided to use the State of California image since it represented the surrounding counties, all working as 'one' with us. When I think of Contra Costa County, a reference point has always been Mt. Diablo. We use Mt. Diablo in our county seal and we even use it on our EHSD logo. I wanted it to have the same 'feel' as our EHSD logo theme. It's a logo design that when you see it, you know it's EHSD." Congratulations, Lloyd!

In the narrowed-down selection that EHSD staff voted on, the runners up were Betty Steggall for her "California Poppy" design, and Adam Flores for his "Shapes" design. Other submissions came from EW Rebecca Hagen (WFS, Antioch), EW Supervisor Tammy Gochenouer (WFS, Antioch), SL Clerk Dave Tilton (Admin Services, Martinez), Information Systems Programmer/Analyst IV Leon Chan (IT, Pleasant Hill), WFS Specialist Tomi Smith (Hercules), Staff Development Specialist Yves Roi David (Jay) and Translator Marisol De Castro (CFS, Antioch).

Look for the winning logo on CalSAWS communication tools for Contra Costa County, including the new CalSAWS Chronicle, videos, training materials, Headlines articles, the intranet, and more -- all leading up to Contra Costa's CalSAWS Go-Live date of October 2022.

Many thanks to everyone who offered their creative talents by entering, and to all of you who voted to make the final selection!
