Subject: PG&E's Wildfire Safety Webinars for Organizations Serving Disabled or AFN Customers

To address the increasing risk of wildfires, PG&E has continued their Community Wildfire Safety Program to promote awareness, risk prevention and community preparedness. As part of this program, PG&E regularly hosts webinars to address wildfire prevention efforts, and local trends and concerns. For your personal safety, please take a few minutes to review the contents of this program, please visit pge.com/wildfiresafety.

Next week, on Tuesday, June 22nd and Wednesday, June 23rd, PG&E will be hosting webinars for organizations that serve customers with disabilities and/or Access and Functional Needs (AFN) to discuss resources available to these customers before, during and after a Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) events as well as their wildfire prevention efforts for 2021.
