The Economic Opportunity Council will provide reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities planning to participate in EOC meetings. Please contact staff at least 24 hours before the meeting at creich@ehsd.cccounty.us

Opportunities for Public Comment: Persons who wish to address the EOC during the public comment or with respect to an agenda item may email their comments to creich@ehsd.ccounty.us before or during the meeting, or should join the teleconference meeting prior to the meeting to state their intent to provide public comments and will be limited to two minutes.

All votes taken during a teleconference will be by roll call.

The Board Chair may reduce the amount of time allotted per speaker at the beginning of each item or public comment period depending on the number of speakers and the business of the day.

Your patience is appreciated.

Desired Outcome: By the end of this meeting, we will:

Understand the desired outcomes and ground rules for this meeting so that we accomplish our meeting objectives in a timely and efficient manner.

Receive any public comments so that the public has an opportunity to provide input and we are knowledgeable of the community's concerns and/or interests for potential inclusion on future agenda.

Receive results of the Survey Monkey so that our work is grounded in our core values, vision, mission, and overarching statement.

Determine and develop the goals and objectives for the next five years.

List next steps so that everyone is aware of their assigned tasks, upcoming meetings, and deadlines.

Evaluate the meeting.

What is Community Action?

The National Community Action Network Theory of Change

Community Action Core Principles

- Recognize the complexity of the issues of poverty
- Build local solutions specific to local needs
- Support family stability as a foundation for economic security
- Pursue positive individual, family and community level change

- Maximize involvement of people with low incomes
- Engage local community partners and citizens in solutions
- Leverage state, federal and community resources
- Advocate for systemic change

Performance Management

How Well Does the Network Operate?

Network Excellence

- Local Organizational Standards
- State and Federal Accountability Measures
- Results Oriented
 Management and Accountability System

What Difference Does the Network Make?

Robust Results

- National Performance Indicators for Individuals and Families
- National Performance Indicators for Communities

A national network of over 1,000 high-performing Community Action Agencies, State Associations, State offices, and Federal partners supported by the Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) to mobilize communities to fight poverty.

Strengths, Weaknesses,
Opportunities & Threats of our Community Action Agency

STRENGTHS (+)

FACTORS

- · All can develop leadership skills
- Able to make use of diverse and unique leadership styles; able to accept the diversity of others and develop leadership that makes use of one's own characteristics
- Able to imagine leadership according to the characteristics of female college students
- Mutual learning and deep understanding of leadership through the relationship of the leadership process

WEAKNESSES (-)

- Difficult to become an engine for problem solving that can bring about explosive breakthroughs
- Proactive efforts by each person are required.
- Basic communication and assertion skills required for leadership are a prerequisite
- . Need to relate to students' own areas of expertise in the future
- Difficulty in setting appropriate tasks that can be tackled by all members of different disciplines to their full potential

EXTERNAL

- Can be applied immediately in a variety of businesses of the 21st century
- Contribute to substantial enhancement of capabilities, especially for women
- Can be expected to demonstrate ability in the large number of uncertain situations
- In addition to traditional one-way lectures, Japanese universities are increasingly interested in programs that encourage students to participate in class (active learning) in order to deepen their learning

THREATS (-)

- Necessity of such leadership in the future of digitalization is unknown
- Leadership after COVID 19 and in a world of mounting environmental problems is unknown
- Leadership education and research at universities has not progressed in Japan
- Advanced examples of leadership education for female students as a reference are not sufficiently shared

SWOT Analysis

	Helpful (to achieving the objective)	Harmful (to achieving the objective)
Internal origin (attributes of the organization)	(S) Strengths	(W) Weaknesses
External origin (attributes of the environment)	(O) Opportunities	(T) Threats

Simple Rules for a successful SWOT analysis:

- Be realistic, be specific. Avoid grey areas.
- Distinguish between where the organization is today and where it will be in the future.
- Analyze in relation to competition (better or worse than)
- Keep it short and simple as long as it shows fitness for purpose
- Avoid unnecessary complexity and over analysis
